Recruiting Test

Attention Coaches!!!

Recruiting tests have been scheduled for the following dates and times at the Testing Center in ZSC 201, please make plans to attend one of the three.

Dates & Times

1. Tuesday May 22 9-11 am
2. Tuesday May 29 2-4 pm
3. Thursday May 31 9-11 am

13.1.2.1.1 Off-Campus Recruiters. An institutional staff member is not permitted to recruit off campus until he or she has been certified on an annual basis as to knowledge of applicable recruiting rules per Bylaw 11.6.1.1. However, institutional staff members (e.g., faculty members) may contact prospective student-athletes for recruiting purposes on campus or within the locale of the institution's main campus during the prospective student-athlete's official visit.

Academic Reminders

Admissions

Attention 2-year and 4-year transfer student-athletes: submit updated transcripts with Spring 2018 grade to qualify for the automatic transfer scholarships for Fall 2018 at <http://www.tamtu.edu/prospect/scholarships.shtml>

Automatic Transfer Student Merit Scholarships

Our transfer student scholarships are honorary, merit-based scholarships awarded to students transferring to TAMU in the Fall or Spring. These scholarships are automatically awarded to qualified students upon meeting the following scholarship criteria.

To be eligible, students must meet the following scholarship criteria.

Presidential Transfer Scholarship ($6,000)

- Transfer with 45+ credit hours†
- Transfer with a 3.75+ GPA.

Achievement Transfer Scholarship ($4,000)

- Transfer with 45+ credit hours†
- Transfer with a 3.50+ GPA

*Total amount awarded within a period of four consecutive long semesters.

†All 45 credit hours must be applicable towards degree.

Notice: Students with 90+ semester credit hours are not eligible for the Automatic Transfer Student Merit Scholarships.

For any assistance, please contact Admissions at adms@tamtu.edu or 956-326-2200.

13.2 Recruiting Materials

Question No. 1: What is the current legislation regarding conference recruiting materials? Answer: Conferences are precluded from providing recruiting materials to prospective student-athletes (or his or her parents, legal guardians or coaches).

Question No. 2: What is a recruiting material? Answer: For purposes of NCAA legislation, recruiting material is athletically related and designed to solicit a prospective student-athlete's enrollment and athletics participation.

Question No. 3: What types of recruiting materials would this proposal permit the conference office to distribute? Answer: While this proposal would not limit the potential recruiting materials, permissible materials would include a poster with all of the conference members and conference information or a brochure about the conference and Division II.

Question No. 4: Does this proposal change the recruiting materials legislation for institutions? Answer: No.

Question No. 5: Would it be permissible for institutional coaches to distribute conference recruiting materials to prospective student-athletes? Answer: Yes, provided the recruiting material is provided to the prospective student-athlete no earlier than June 15 immediately preceding the prospective student-athlete's junior year in high school.

Question No. 6: Is it permissible for a conference to highlight a specific institution on recruiting materials? Answer: Yes. The content of the recruiting material would be at the discretion of the conference office.

Question No. 7: Would this proposal permit a conference to include an affiliate member on recruiting materials? Answer: Yes.

Question No. 8: Would this proposal permit a conference to include a member who sponsors a Division I sport on recruiting materials? Answer: Yes, however, it would remain impermissible for Division I conferences to distribute recruiting materials.

Question No. 9: Would this proposal permit a conference to distribute institutional recruiting material? Answer: No.

Question No. 10: Would it be permissible for a conference office to provide recruiting materials to a prospective student-athlete (or his or her parents, legal guardians or coaches) prior to June 15 immediately preceding the prospective student-athlete's junior year? Answer: No.
