The mission of the Graduate Bilingual Education degree program at TAMIU is to provide an advanced comprehensive linguistic, cultural, and academic experience for educators committed to the advancement of bilingual education applicable to local, state, national, and international needs of diverse populations.

- Develop critical consumers of research and contributors of bilingual education to enhance the current knowledge base
- Enhance educators’ knowledge to advance students’ learning in a multicultural environment
- Advocate for strong forms of bilingual education

Synthesize and analyze current research to promote dual language literacy

Utilize evidenced-based practices, methodologies, and biliterate and bicultural teaching and assessment practices

Impact bilingual programs through designing, implementing, and evaluating bilingual, biliterate, and bicultural pedagogy

Method of Assessment:
- Action research project
- Annotated anthology exemplified through multimedia
- Comprehensive exams

Method of Assessment:
- Action research project
- Professional development workshops
- Comprehensive exams

Method of Assessment:
- Action research project
- Training modules
- Comprehensive exams

M.S. in Education, Bilingual Education