

How much does it cost?

There is no charge for counseling and consultation to registered students as these costs are covered by student fees. However, if you are not taking summer session classes, but are registered for fall semester, you may qualify to pay the summer bridge fee that will vary from year to year. For more information on this, visit our office or call at (956) 326-2230.