

IBC BANK & COMMERCE BANK 2024-2025 KEYNOTE SPEAKER SERIES

STEPHEN P. MUMME, PH.D. EMERITUS PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE, COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Stephen P. Mumme is Emeritus Professor of Political Science at Colorado State University where he served from 1983 to 2024 teaching comparative environmental politics and policy with an emphasis on U.S.-Mexican water and environmental relations.

Dr. Mumme is the author of Border Water: The Politics of U.S.-Mexico Transboundary Water Management, 1945-2015 (University of Arizona Press 2023) and Apportioning Groundwater along the U.S.-Mexico Border (UCSD 1988) as well as co-author with Alan Lamborn of Statecraft Domestic Politics and Foreign Policy Making (Westview 1988). His research appears in dozens of journals, including the Political Research Quarterly, Policy Studies Journal, Policy Studies Review, Publius, Social Science Journal, Journal of Interamerican Studies and World Affairs, Environmental Politics, Natural Resources Journal, Journal of Environment and Development,

Tulane Journal of Environmental Law, Latin American Perspectives, Journal of Borderlands Studies, Frontera Norte, Región y Sociedad, Denver Water Law Review, International Journal of Sustainable Society, Globalizations, Journal of Water Law, and Latin American Research Review, among others. He has also authored numerous book chapters and opinion pieces - some of the latter appearing in The Hill, Health Affairs Blog, The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, San Diego Union-Tribune, The Denver Post, The Arizona Republic, Ms. Magazine, The Conversation, Tucson Citizen, and the Arizona Daily Star.

Since 2018, he has been a non-resident research scholar with the U.S.-México Center at the James Baker Institute for Policy Studies at Rice University. His recent work, “Troubled Waters: Recent Challenges to the 1970 US-México Boundary Treaty” (with Regina Bouno) and “Treaty and Non-Treaty Mechanisms for Resolving the Rio Grande River Water Debt Dilemma” (with Oscar Ibanez), has focused on the water politics of the Rio Grande River.

Professor Mumme has been quoted in a wide range of publications including Scripps News Service, Univision, The Wall Street Journal, Congressional Research Service, National Public Radio, the Center for Biological Diversity’s The Revelator series, OnEarth Magazine, EcoAmericas, Texas Monthly, Vice News, Greenwire, The Texas Tribune, Inside Higher Ed, El Imparcial (Hermosillo, Sonora), Western Water Magazine, La Jornada (Mexico City), BBC Mundo, Bloomberg News, and Politico, among others.

In 2021, he was honored with the Association for Borderlands Studies Lifetime Achievement Award.

