

TECHNOLOGY SPOTLIGHT

eLearning

SEPTEMBER 2016

DR. MARIA D. VIORIA
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY EXCELLENCE AWARD

The recipient of the 2016 Instructional Technology Excellence Award is Dr. Maria D. Vioria. Dr. Vioria has demonstrated innovative and creative use of instructional technology in her classes. Dr. Vioria has designed original and creative ways to engage her students as they complete internships and clinical teaching and trained them on different online tools to conduct qualitative research. This year, Dr.

From Left to Right: Dr. Patricia Abrego, Dr. LeeBrian Gaskins, Dr. Maria Vioria, Dr. Pablo Arenaz, and Dr. Thomas Mitchell

Vioria coordinated a Principal STEM conference entitled "Leaders: Impacting STEM Futures" that exposed local school administrators to critical leadership tools in STEM learning. Finally, Dr. Vioria is considered to be the force behind the online movement in the Educational Administration program and has designed her courses to meet the prestigious Quality Matters Certification.

CONGRATULATIONS!