VOLUNTEER CODE OF CONDUCT

As a volunteer, you are expected to...

1. Fulfill the responsibilities of your assignment:
   a) Carry out all aspects of your assignment.
   b) Attend all required meetings and/or orientations.
   c) Notify the volunteer coordinator if you cannot complete an assignment.
   d) Notify the Office of Student Affairs staff if you could not complete assignment or attend event.

2. Set an example for other students/volunteers:
   a) Refrain from smoking, consuming alcohol or using profanity when acting as a volunteer.
   b) Be discreet in your personal relationship with the other volunteers and avoid any behavior, which may be misunderstood or misinterpreted.

3. Demonstrate good leadership abilities:
   a) Look for constructive ways to overcome obstacles.
   b) Report anything you observe, either in the physical environment or an individual’s behavior, which you feel may cause potential harm.
   c) Support and assist other volunteer members when in need.
   d) Be respectful during ceremonies and always volunteer to assist pre and post ceremonies.
   e) Praise volunteers for their effort and dedication to the service.
   f) Be open to new ideas and new ways of doing things.
   g) Become an active participant by extending your involvement to other roles of leadership and training.
   h) Delight in the changes that your involvement makes in the life of someone you know and in the lives of those you never meet but you service has impacted.

Adopted from the Special Olympics Volunteer Handbook